MILLIE H. BECKER NAMED VP – BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AT FIRST AVIATION SERVICES – TETERBORO

TETERBORO, N.J. - Former Landmark Aviation marketing executive Millie H. Becker has been named vice-president for business development at First Aviation Services, the fast-growing new business aviation FBO at Teterboro Airport west of New York City.

“Millie has more than two decades experience marketing business aviation travel in the New York area,” said Bill Thomas, managing director/CEO at FIRST. “She knows the market and she knows our customer. We’re delighted to have her on our team.”

Ms. Becker became CEO of Westchester Air, an air charter firm at Westchester County Airport, N.Y., in 1994 after seven years as its vice-president of marketing. Previously, she was assistant manager at Ground Handling, Inc. serving seven airlines at HPN. Her aviation career began with discount carrier New York Air at LaGuardia.

She was most recently vice-president of marketing and sales for Landmark Aviation until that firm’s sale in 2008.

Millie Hernandez-Becker was honored in 2001 as Business Woman of the Year in the Northeast by the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. She later received a Presidential appointment to the National Women’s Business Council in Washington, D.C. Her rise in the business world has been featured in The New York Times, Latina and on NBC.

Today, she is a member of NBAA and NATA, and is a trustee of Mercy College. She resides in Pound Ridge, New York, with her husband, a television executive, and son.

Ms. Becker assumed her new role in February to expand customer awareness of FIRST’s spacious new Teterboro facilities for large business aircraft.
