

FIRST AVIATION MANAGERS MEET NBAA SCHEDULERS AND DISPATCHERS

San Antonio, January 27-29, 2010- First Aviation VP-Business Development Millie Becker and Manager-Line Operations Robert DeStefano greet a customer at NBAA's 2010 Schedulers and Dispatchers Conference in San Antonio.

Some 344 exhibitors attended the January event, including nearly 100 representing FBOs and airport authorities. Attendees heard professional development programs including "Proactive Planning for Special Events," "Demonstrating Value in the Changing World of Business Aviation" and "Information Risk Management in Aviation."

First Aviation Services told personnel who dispatch business and corporate flights about FIRST's advantages at Teterboro, including our 22 acres of no-tow aircraft parking, easy ground access to New York City and our 120,000 square feet of hangar space.
